THE RIVER OF DOUBT.

AUG 16 1927

Down in the jungle of the Amazon, hippos slide on dinosaur's necks, birds feed hippos to their young, monkeys fly like birds and play on crocodile harps so other apes may dance, and wild cats raise havoc with other animals.

Into such a jungle, Thomas Cat rows old Al Falfa. A volley of cocoanuts greets them as they step ashore. Attracted by the music, Al sights the dancing monkeys and proceeds to photograph the animals in their natural haunts. As he focuses his camera, a wild cat attacks him from the rear. The cat grabs Al's camera and starts off with Al in pursuit.

With the jungle animals as spectators, old Al and the wild cat fight it out, the cat being victorious.

AESOP SAYS:-

" CATCHING WILD CATS IS EASY, BUT HOW TO LET THEM GO IS THE TRICK. "
